Chapter 1 by Neolillz

"What do all of the victims have in common..." Detective Marny said to himself. Truth be told, he had no idea.

Seven children had gone missing in three days. That was the main average. This had been going on for three months. Detective Marny sat back on his chair. "This is all useless!" He cried. Then his daughter came into the room.

"Daddy can we go to the circus!" She chirped.

"Of course Cecilia! We'll go tomorrow night in fact!" This is what happened when he worked too much. He didn't consider the price, he didn't consider the show times and he definitely didn't consider his case.

Three days after Cecilia went missing Detective Marny sat in his office. Again he thought the same question he had 5 days ago.

"What do all of the victims have in common "
